I like it

By Amanda

I bought this book from Target. Love the content & the pics are all cute. There are pages for forest animals, farm animals, my body parts, my family members, opposites, counting, names of my toys, names of my food/fruits, my home, transportation, etc. Me & my child have lots of fun with this book & apparently it's getting broken because we use it a lot. I'm also buying one more for gift for my friend's kid.

We found this at Home Goods and it has become officially my toddlers favorite book. Multiple times a day he'll bring it to an adult so that we can ask him where things are so that he can point to them. He has learned so many words and objects from this book. I love it!! And the illustrations are wonderful!

We love this book for learning words

By Danielle

We love this book for learning words, it is really cute and covers so many things! My only complaint is that some of the pictures are a little too cartoony and hard to tell what the animal or body part is. Since it is for first words it is for pretty little kiddos that could be easily confused. We like our word book with read pictures just a little more!
