While it started out fine...

By T. Jay Farley

What really chafed me and caused me to request a refund is to find the story abruptly stopping in the middle of a scene with the words "TO BE CONTINUED"... SERIOUSLY? As an author, I find this incredibly irresponsible by anyone who writes and calls themselves an "author." This is nothing more than an attempt grab profit over the idea of completing a work to the benefit of the reader.

If you unable or unwilling to complete a work with an appropriate ending, then DO NOT, I repeat, DO NOT take pen to paper (physically or electronically) and attempt to call yourself an author. You demean the profession.

Since I read almost every paranormal M/M book that is published, I was excited to see a new author from eXtasy Books, which is my go-to company for my shifter fix. However, Loved By A Werewolf just wasn't my cup of tea.

From the cover, you'd never be able to tell this is a Young Adult novella, not a traditional M/M book. That was my first surprise, but since I'm an avid fan of the television show, Teen Wolf, that did not deter me. What did drag my rating down was the lack of editing, the weird plot which at times did not make a lick of sense and the constant internal dialogue which threw me out of the story multiple times.

Also, the writing was disjointed and confusing. The plot derailed about half way in (werewolf kills people and his love interest is turned on and excited by this, which was creepy to say the least). Add in the ending, which just ended and offered no real resolution except a "to be continued" note. So, this short novella did not hold my interest and sadly, I cannot recommend it.

"The surprise is worth the secrecy in Loved by a Werewolf."

By mnix

Growing up Jex was taught life lessons from his father that other boys never learned. As the son of a mob boss Jex was taught how to survive a kidnapping, among other things, which was coming in handy at the moment. Jex managed to get away from his assailants, but he knew it was only a matter of time before they caught him again.

Hiding in the thick foliage Jex realizes that someone or something else is hunting tonight. Whoever is out there appears to be protecting him though he can't imagine why. Jex is about to be given the shock of a lifetime. Only time will tell if he can accept what's right before his eyes.

Beware the woods on a moonlit night. A young man in dire trouble finds salvation when he's Loved by a Werewolf. The fast paced, tense tale evolves into a sexy romance with a 'to be continued' ending. Jex is able to keep his wits and embrace an unbelievable future that most would probably reject. The surprise is worth the secrecy in Loved by a Werewolf. Looking forward to what happens next...
