Holy Four Alarm Fire Batman!

I think I just read the hottest thing to creep onto my eReader in a good while. And believe me, I've read some yummy little tales lately. Make Me absolutely knocked my socks off. I could totally segue that last statement into a lewd comment but I'll keep my inner 16 year old at bay ;)

Tyler's character is so delightfully filthy with his words. Mix that with Brandon's sweet disposition and it's just a firework ready to go off.

Maisie is a lucky lady.

I, personally, would qualify this is erotic romance, because there is a relationship that reaches beyond sex. I know others might disagree and mark it as strictly erotica due to the sexual content (F/M,M/M, M/M/F) and frequency of such scenes. But whatever you want to classify Make Me under I don't care, because it was hot and made my day/night and probably tomorrow :)

pant-pant

By Julie Jaret, author

Charlotte Stein has just redefined "hot" for me. Again. I beg her to never, ever write scat. Ever.

As with all other books I've read by Ms. Stein, I loved the language, the characters, the story. I've never met these people on the pages of someone else's book. The world, the tone, the dynamic... all unique -- the kind of unique I've found to be a hallmark of Ms. Stein's work.

If you consider yourself open-minded, I'd recommend this book to you. If you want more of the sort of stories you've grown comfortable with, you're in the wrong place.

I will read anything Charlotte Stein writes

By P. Olsen

In a romance world full of alphas, Charlotte writes just for me, it seems. Everyone seems to want a big tough alpha these days, but give me a hottie that likes to be bossed around a bit, and I go weak in the knees! All her characters: tops, bottoms, and a little bit of both, have true emotions and depth. Love love love.
