No errata

By Ralph G

The normal Magic Item Compendium gets 5 Stars from me, but this Premium edition does not. It does not contain the promised errata.

If you have the normal MIC, don't buy this one.

Sharp looking but does NOT include errata as advertised.

By N. Shafer

Before Wizards of the Coast re-released the Magic Item Compendium, I had made a reasonable effort to buy this at a reasonable price, but was unsuccessful. I was delighted to finally be able to get my hands on a crisp new copy. It has a beautiful improvement to the cover. I would recommend this book to anyone who still plays D&D 3.5. It significantly improves the magic item options for low level characters.

That being said, I was disappointed to find that despite the advertisement that it "includes errata," it does not. Many of the errors would have been very simple to fix--substituting price X with price y--but this rudimentary copy editing was not done. If you are buying this book for the errata, you should save your money.

NO ERRATA

By Andrew L.

Wizards of the Coast/Hasbro lied! The Premium Spell Compendium, Monster Manual, Players Handbook, and Dungeon Master Guide all include the promised errata but this product doesn't have it at all. All you are paying for with this is a fancy new hard cover. Buy a used one if you really want this book and don't already have a copy. Better yet, find a copy on the internet.
