Charismatic View On Being Filled With the Spirit

By Seeking Disciple

This book offers a charismatic view of what it means to be filled with the Holy Spirit. The authors also deal with the charismatic gifts of the Spirit such as tongues, interpretation of tongues, and miracles (1 Corinthians 12:7-11).

The book does a good job of presenting the person and work of the Holy Spirit from a biblical perspective. The authors also do a good job of sharing various Christians stories and experiences with the Holy Spirit.

My only reason for giving this book four stars instead of five is the authors failed to deliver a strong charismatic theology and they did not present other Christians approach to being filled/baptized with the Holy Spirit. I believe a good chapter on others approach would have been helpful. Overall, this is good book if you are interested in a charismatic approach to the person and work of the Holy Spirit.
