Priceless Resource

By Teri Case

For $17.99 I just made off with an inexpensive but PRICELESS education on writing. I have taken several helpful online courses for every area: character building, plotting, writing, editing, libel, publishing via a traditional publisher or self-publishing, cover creation, and how to market my book and most importantly build my author's platform. Holy Toledo. This is a step by step guidebook (I think of it as my writer's bible now) that has helped me not only revisit a book I wrote several years ago to rewrite it for new adults, but quite honestly, has helped me with a book that has nothing to do with new adults, as well. Deborah's writing is seamless and so easy to follow -- almost as if she is sitting across the table from the reader and providing mentorship. And her exercises are new and fun, and not the usual exercises I've run into at various conferences, or in classes. I'm not going anywhere, or writing another book, without Deborah Halverson's Writing New Adult Fiction sitting next to my keyboard. Happy reading and writing!

Deborah Halverson delivered everything I needed to know about how to revise my book in a fun, snappy

By Diane Kennedy

This book is an incredible resource. It gave me all the tools I need to polish my plot, rev up my opening and bring realism to my dialogue.

My copy is now covered with highlighting and margin notes that I will use as I work on the second draft of my novel. Deborah Halverson delivered everything I needed to know about how to revise my book in a fun, snappy, easy-to-digest narrative. I highly recommend this book for any writer wanting to improve their craft. Thanks, Deborah!

This book is good not only for New Adult

By Kimberly G. Coggins

This book is good not only for New Adult, but also writing in general. It did enlighten me to New Adult issues/concerns that I may have forgotten about in my quest to write NA fiction. It is certainly worth the money.....I have notes, tabs, and sticky notes throughout!
